

THE EZRA JACK KEATS BOOKMAKING COMPETITION

The Ezra Jack Keats Bookmaking Competition, an annual collaboration between the San Francisco Unified School District and The Contemporary Jewish Museum, promotes the art and craft of original bookmaking in the public school classroom.

Book Viewing and Awards Ceremony

SUNDAY, APRIL 9, 2017

Free admission for all book-making participants, friends, and family.

From Class of Kindness, Second Grade, Redding Elementary.
Teachers: Lori Barak & Linda Friou. Librarian: Sharon Robinson

11AM-3PM

Books on view + book-related art and entertainment

3-5PM

Awards Ceremony

► RSVP by April 6 to schools@theejm.org ◀

The Contemporary Jewish Museum is located in San Francisco at 736 Mission Street between Third and Fourth streets.

Parking is available directly below The Museum in the Jessie Square Garage at 223 Stevenson Street.

Accessible by BART and Muni

School and Teacher Programs at The Contemporary Jewish Museum are made possible by Pacific Gas and Electric Company. Leadership support is provided by the Horace W. Goldsmith Foundation and the Lisa and John Pritzker Family Fund. Additional generous support is provided by the Toole Family Charitable Foundation, The Ullendorff Memorial Foundation, and Carol Swig.

BLICK
art materials

Support for the Ezra Jack Keats Bookmaking Competition is provided by The Ezra Jack Keats Foundation and Blick Art Materials.

San Francisco Public Library

For information, call 415.655.7855.

theejm.org

CONTEMPORARY JEWISH MUSEUM